G-1055, Fee Schedule

i Alert: USCIS no longer accepts payments made by personal or business check, money order, or cashier's check for forms filed by paper unless you qualify for an exemption. When filing by mail, you can pay using a credit, debit, or prepaid card by completing Form G-1450, Authorization for Credit Card Transactions, or you can make a payment directly from a U.S. bank account by completing Form G-1650, Authorization for ACH Transactions.

Before sending your package to USCIS, watch What and How to Pay for additional guidance on how to file at the USCIS Lockbox with the correct payment.

USCIS continues to accept payments made through Pay.gov for applications and petitions filed online.

i ALERT: On Dec. 31, 2025, we published a new edition of Form G-1055, Fee Schedule. The new edition, 01/01/26, includes the new inflationary-adjusted fees on certain H.R. 1 immigration-related fees, effective on Jan. 1, 2026.

The fees that are increasing due to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services Federal Register Notice, and the U.S. Customs and Border Protection Federal Register Notice, are included in the forms listed below:

- Form I-131, Application for Travel Documents, Parole Documents, and Arrival/Departure Records;
- Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal;
- Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization;
- Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status; and
- Form I-941, Application for Entrepreneur Parole

If you submit a benefit request postmarked on or after Jan. 1, 2026, that requires one of these HR-1 immigration-related fees, you must include the proper fee for the specific benefit you are requesting.

i ALERT: On Oct. 1, 2025, we began sending notices to all aliens with a pending Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal, who are required to pay the new Annual Asylum Fee (AAF) as provided in the July 22, 2025 Federal Register notice titled "USCIS Immigration Fees Required by HR-1 Reconciliation Bill." We also sent notices to any representatives of these aliens listed on Form G-28.

On Oct. 30, 2025, the United States District Court for the District of Maryland in Asylum Seeker Advocacy Project v. United States Citizenship and Immigration Services, et al., SAG-25-03299 (D. Md.), temporarily stayed the AAF implementation provisions by USCIS. USCIS strongly disagrees with the Court's order but will follow its terms pending possible further judicial review.

In accordance with the Oct. 30 order, USCIS has paused the issuance of AAF notices pending further litigation developments. Any applicant who has received a notice from USCIS instructing him or her to pay the AAF may disregard that notice while the temporary stay is in place. USCIS will not refund previously paid annual asylum fees, and applicants who paid the fee should retain their receipts. USCIS will issue updated instructions on payment of the AAF pending further litigation developments.

Use this form to verify fee information for immigration forms.

Each application, petition, or request must be accompanied by the correct fee(s) unless you are exempt from paying the fee(s) or are eligible for a fee waiver. If the fee is incorrect, your application, petition, or request will be rejected.

Fees for applications, petitions, or requests can be paid by ACH debit, or credit card.

Filing at a USCIS Office

If you are filing your application or petition at a USCIS office, you must pay for the filing fee through pay.gov via a credit card or debit card, or electronic funds transfer (EFT) from a U.S. banking institution using Form G-1650, Authorization for ACH Transactions. Cash can never be used to pay a filing and/or biometric services fee, even when filing at a USCIS Office.

Fees required under Public Law 119-21 (Pub. L. 119-21)

Certain forms have an additional fee required along with any filing fee. These fees are not waivable and must be paid by separate payment concurrent with any filing fee. If there is no filing fee for the form or you have applied for a fee waiver for the form's filing fee, you must still pay the additional fee mandated by Pub. L. 119-21.

NOTE: Pub. L. 119-21 fees adjust each year as required by law.

Fee Waivers

Certain filers may qualify for a fee waiver for certain forms. To determine your eligibility for a fee waiver, please review Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver. If you are not eligible for a fee waiver, you must submit the correct fee(s). For most forms, you cannot request a fee waiver when filing online. You must file a paper version of Form I-912, or a written request for a fee waiver, and the form for which you are requesting a fee waiver. You may not request a fee waiver of the additional fees required by Pub. L. 119-21. However, you may request a waiver of the filing fee set by USCIS, if otherwise eligible, while submitting the additional fee required by Pub. L. 119-21.

Fee Exemptions

Fee-exempt forms and filing categories list $0 as the Filing Fee. You do not need to file Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver, or make a formal request to qualify for a fee exemption. However, the fee exemptions in this schedule only indicate that the form is free to file. They do not indicate eligibility to file those benefit requests in all circumstances. Eligibility to file a particular benefit request is set forth in the applicable regulations and form instructions.
